How Do I Connect?

WiFi sponsored by COVINGTON

- 1. Select GW connect from your available SSID network list.
- 2. If prompted for cppm.it.gwu.edu, accept or trust the certificate. Note: The certificate will display as "Not Trusted" because it's a GWU-generated local certificate, only valid for GW resources.
- 3. Open browser to be directed to the GW connect Splash Page. If not redirected, navigate to my.gwu.edu.
- 4. On the Splash Page, click the link in the sentence, "If you are a guest of the university click here to request or reset credentials."
- 5. Fill in the form and accept the GW wireless terms of use. Then click 'Register.'
- 6. You will receive your username and password per email and/or text message. Click 'Login.'
- 7. Enter username and password provided to you. You will now have network access for 72 hours.

Welcome

The Privacy + Security Forum brings together seasoned thought leaders in privacy and security. We are excited that you can join us!

Our distinguished participants are from Beijing, Berlin, Brussels, Dubai, Dublin, London, Mexico City, Montreal, Paris, Seoul, Tokyo, Zürich and, of course, from across the U.S.

Network with privacy professionals, security professionals, chief information officers, attorneys, academics, experts from NGOs & think tanks, technologists, policymakers, and everyone else with strong ties to the privacy and security community.

We look forward to welcoming you with 700+ thought leaders expected.

Daniel J. Solove is the Eugene L. and Barbara A. Bernard Professor of Intellectual Property and Technology Law at the George Washington University Law School. He founded TeachPrivacy, a company providing privacy and data security training. He is one of the world's leading experts in privacy law.

Paul M. Schwartz is a leading international expert on information privacy law. He is the Jefferson E. Peyser Professor at UC Berkeley School of Law and a Director of the Berkeley Center for Law and Technology.

A practical approach to privacy and data security

Businesses around the world face a triple privacy threat of greater scrutiny from the public and regulators, stringent data protection regulation, and increasing threats from data breaches.

Our Privacy & Data Protection team has extensive experience providing practical and timely advice to companies - from large multinationals to local businesses - across a range of sectors in implementing privacy and data protection policies, procedures, and practices commensurate with the nature and scope of the business and the likely risks. We also have the technical and industry experience to help anticipate future needs and challenges, such as those relating to blockchain/digital assets and artificial intelligence/machine learning implementation.
